

Located in the heart of the capital of Champagne, the Palais du Tau is the coronation palace of French kings.

Classified by UNESCO as a world heritage site, this emblematic building has hosted the most sumptuous receptions for centuries

PALAIS DU TAU À REIMS

Residence of French kings and queens during coronation ceremonies, the Palais du Tau - former palace belonging to the Archbishop of Reims - is a UNESCO world heritage site.

Today it presents the memory of the cathedral and the splendour of coronations. Sculptures, tapestries, costumes, ornaments and gold work create an exceptional treasure from the Middle Ages to the 19th century. Each of the prestigious rooms available takes you through nearly five centuries of history, creating an exceptional venue with a unique atmosphere.
